He will be given a hearing in the Police Court this morning, and it is believed a sure case will be made out against him. The police of this city have been mystified for some time, and were unable to trace the man who has been flashing worthless checks, in different parts of the city, mostly on boarding house keepers. It is now believed, however, that most of these crimes can be laid at Sommerell's door, with undeniable evidence.

TODAY'S FOOTBALL CAME.

INDICATIONS POINT TO A FIERCE STRUGGLE.

The sale of tickets for the football game this afternoon between Norfolk and Portsmouth indicate that a large and Portsmouth indicate that a large crowd will be present at League Park to witness the struggle. Both teams are in fine condition and are ready to put up the game of their lives, Manager Vesey, of the Norfolk team, stated to a Virginian-Pilot representative last night that his men were in fine fettle, and that he felt sure that they would hold up Norfolk's end of the line in great style. He added that under no condition would the game be played as long as there was a single person on the gridiron other than the two teams, the officials and the representatives of the press—that every spectator would be kept in the grand stand and bleachers, so that all who go out can rest asdry on Pleasure House beach, about three hundred yards from Lake Joyce, one of the city's new sources of water supply. The whale, which is between 65 and 75 feet in length, and is worth a small fortune to any one who will extract the sperm from it, was discovered by Mr. George Butt.

It is thought that the whale was cast up. Sunday morning by the tide, and was either dead or comparatively help-less at the time. It has begun to decay, and it may be necessary to burn the carcass or otherwise dispose of it within the next day or two, the Virginian-Pilot is informed.

This action on the part of the management will do away with the great annoyance that speciators have had to put up with at former games.
